CEEED is an academic research association of scholars, academicians and scientists from India and abroad committed to promote value and ethical research in the young research scholars & modern society. Exclusively CEEED is strongly committed to promote EDUCATION, ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS AND HEALTH AWARENESS programs free in remote agencies, for economical poor background individuals, conducts awareness programs in remote agencies, villages and slums to encourage young towards higher studies along with guidance to choose right course of study depending on their calibre and merit.

Part of its functioning every year the CEEED organizes International Conferences on various disciplines, designed with special invited research lectures, paper-presentation and poster presentation etc., intended to reflect the current state of the research in the respective subjects.

The Clarion is published twice in a year at par with international standards. This enables the authors to publish their work rapidly. All the accepted papers are uploaded and published online soon after final acceptance. In the interests of speed, manuscripts are not extensively copy-edited, and authors are requested to check their manuscripts carefully before submitting revised form for final publication.

All contributions submitted for publication are critically reviewed by editorial board and in-house editors in order to ensure constant high quality of the journals. The papers which are failing to meet the basic criteria will be summarily rejected in the first step without external peer review.:

Registration and login are required to submit items online and to check the status of current submissions. Or, submit your manuscript through the Online Submission Form provided that the text, tables, and figures are included in a single Microsoft Word file. Before submitting your paper, please go through the detailed authors guidelines and sample paper given in the online submission page. Please visit our new website of the journal "www.clarion.ind.in"

The Editor-in Chief is grateful to the advisory board members and the life members of the Centre for Environment, Education and Economic Development (CEEED) for their strong encouragement and support. The Clarion is thankful for the support extended by many renowned and respected academicians from India and abroad, those who have very kindly accepted to be part of the Clarion's editorial board.

We are very much thankful to all the authors from India and abroad who have contributed a lot in the form of their research/ scientific/ technical papers.

Thank you all for carrying this Journal to the academic heights.
